Santa Sabina College Poetry Competition 2025

In Term 4, we introduced the Santa Sabina Poetry Competition. We were overwhelmed with the response of over 60 entries, and thank everyone who entered, for bringing life to the competition.

A big thank you to Mary Shoard, Angela Bunquin and Allana Hempenstall who took the time during the busiest time of the year to judge the competition.

Winners in each category won a $25 Dymocks gift voucher and were presented with a Certificate. Runners up received a bundle of literary gifts as well as a Certificate. We also had two special prizes.

All award winners will have their work published in our 2026 Writing and Poetry Anthology.

PRACTICAL EXAMINATION REPORT

Voice & Comm 3rd Grade

Performance

THEME: Student Life

A friendly and engaging introduction to your program, Lydia. Your sense of style was charming.

PROSE:

ALICE MIRANDA TAKES THE LEAD by Jacqueline Harvey

You provided an informative introduction. The reading was fluent but perhaps the pace didn't have sufficient variation. You were connected to the text (story) nonetheless which was impressive.

POEM:

MY SCHOOL BAG Dulcie Meddows

Good use of voice in conveying this entertaining poem. This was an imaginative interpretation with well-controlled use of emphasis to bring out the ideas. Lively expressive qualities engaged the listener in the poetry section.

CHOICE:

An expert talk on how to be the best student.

A delightful and fruitful idea. This was such an engaging talk with a variety of personal ideas and goals being expressed. You certainly brought out the feeling with splendid assurance.

General Remarks

You demonstrated a wealth of skills and potential in your exam presentations today, Lydia.

There is no doubting your conversational skills and ability to engage the audience. Well done.

They are dressed in various costumes, including a white chef's hat, a pink bunny ear headband, a pink sequined dress with a fur stole, and a white lab coat. Some are holding props like a yellow stuffed animal, a green book, and a small doll. They are standing in front of a light-colored wall.
